Published by Authority.

From Tuesday June 20. to Saturday June 24. 1738.

Kensington, June 22.

THE following Addreſs of the Chancellor, Maſters and Scholars of the Univerſity of Oxford, was preſented to His Majeſty by his Grace the Lord Archbiſhop of Canterbury: Which Addreſs His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Chancellor, Maſters and Scholars of the Univerſity of Oxford, humbly beg Leave to preſent to your Majeſty our moſt ſincere Congratulations, upon the increaſing Felicity of your Royal Family, and this Nation by the Birth of a Prince.

We gladly embrace this and all other Occaſions to aſſure your Majeſty, that the entire Satisfaction we receive from every ſignal Bleſſing, which attends your Majeſty and your auguſt Houſe, proceeds from our Gratitude and Affection to your Perſon and Government, to which we are zealouſly attached by the ſtrongeſt Bands that can unite us, the Protection of our Religious and Civil Eſtabliſhment under a Prince, who upon all Occaſions has been graciouſly pleaſed to declare his unalterable Reſolution of preſerving the juſt Rights and Liberties of all his Subjects.

May your Majeſty long live to enjoy the Fruits of your paternal Care for the Good and Welfare of your People in the Hearts and Affections of all your Subjects; and may every Branch of your illuſtrious Family be influenced by your Majeſty's great Example, to contribute to the Support of thoſe Laws, which the Wiſdom and Juſtice of your Reign have provided for the Security of a free and happy People.

Given at our Convocation Houſe the 15th of June, 1738.

The following Addreſs of the Chancellor, Maſters and Scholars of the Univerſity of Cambridge, was preſented to His Majeſty by his Grace the Duke of Newcaſtle, one of his Majeſty's Principal Secretaries of State, and High Steward of the ſaid Univerſity: Which Addreſs his Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Chancellor, Maſters and Scholars of your Univerſity of Cambridge, humbly beg Leave to congratulate your Majeſty on the happy Delivery of her Royal Highneſs the Princeſs of Wales, and the Birth of a Prince.

Your Royal Care to advance the Welfare and Proſperity of your Kingdoms, juſtly demands from all your Subjects the moſt grateful Returns of Duty and Loyalty, and engages them to take the utmoſt Satisfaction at an Event which ſo nearly concerns your Majeſty as the late happy Increaſe of your auguſt Family. But we are under peculiar Obligations on this Occaſion to take Part in the publick Joy, on account of the many diſtinguiſh'd Favours conferred upon us, and the gracious Aſſurances your Majeſty has frequently given us of your Favour and Protection.

We cannot ſufficiently expreſs the Pleaſure we take in the enlarg'd Proſpect we have, that the Bleſſings we enjoy during your Majeſty's auſpicious Reign will be continued to our lateſt Poſterity, through a long Succeſſion of Princes, form'd after your great Example, to be Protectors of our Civil Rights, Patrons of Learning and Virtue, and Defenders of our eſtabliſh'd Church.

The beſt Return we can make for the repeated Inſtances of your Royal Favour and Bounty to us, is to approve ourſelves dutiful Subjects to ſo gracious a Sovereign, by taking all Occaſions to manifeſt an inviolable Attachment to your Majeſty's Perſon and Government, by continuing to inſtill Principles of Religion and Loyalty into the Youth committed to our Care, and praying that your Majeſty may enjoy a long and a happy Reign over us.

The following Addreſs of the Grand Jury of the County of Middleſex, was preſented to his Majeſty by his Grace the Duke of Newcaſtle, one of His Majeſty's Principal Secretaries of State, and Lord Lieutenant and Cuſtos Rotulorum of the County of Middleſex: Which Addreſs His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Gentlemen of the ſeveral Grand Juries ſworn and charged to enquire for your Majeſty, and for the Body of the County of Middleſex in your Majeſty's Court of King's Bench at Weſtminſter, humbly beg Leave to approach your Royal Perſon with Hearts full of Joy for the Increaſe of your Majeſty's Royal Family by the Birth of a Son to the Prince of Wales.

We are ſo truly ſenſible that the Preſervation of our Religion, Laws and Liberties, depends on the Continuance of your Majeſty's Royal Family among us, that we ſhould be wanting to ourſelves, as well as in Duty to your Majeſty, if we did not congratulate on this this happy Occaſion: May it prove in every Inſtance a Bleſſing of Providence on this Nation; may the Birth of this Prince be the Means of reconciling all thoſe Diviſions, which unhappily ſubſiſt among us; may an inviolable Duty to your Majeſty's Perſon, a ſincere Affection for your Family, and a true Love for your Country, conſpire to unite all Hearts, and ſtrengthen every Hand for your Service; and may this young Prince live to make, in due but diſtant Times, our Poſterity feel the ſame Bleſſings we now enjoy under your Majeſty's Government; and may he, by the Example of his Royal Anceſtors, preſerve this Kingdom great, glorious, and happy: Which are the ſincere and hearty Wiſhes of, May it pleaſe your Majeſty,

Your moſt dutiful, affectionate, and loyal Subjects, The Gentlemen of the ſeveral Grand Juries ſworn and charged to enquire for your Majeſty, and the Body of the County of Middleſex, in your Majeſty's Court of King's Bench at Weſtminſter.

The following Addreſs of the Mayor, Burgeſſes, and Commonalty of the City of Briſtol was preſented to his Majeſty by the Right Hon. the Lord High Chancellor of Great Britain, High Steward of the ſaid City: Which Addreſs his Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty.
The humble Addreſs of the Mayor, Burgeſſes and Commonalty of the City of Briſtol.

May it pleaſe your Majeſty.

YOUR Majeſty's moſt Dutiful and Loyal Subjects the Mayor, Burgeſſes, and Commonalty of the City of Briſtol, with all Humility beg Leave to congratulate your Majeſty on the Birth of a Prince born to his Royal Highneſs the Prince of Wales.

It is a Circumſtance of National Felicity peculiar to your Majeſty's Government, that every Incident, which in any Meaſure gives your Majeſty Satisfaction, contributes in the ſame Proportion to the common Joy of your Subjects. The Stability of your Majeſty's Throne is the Foundation of their preſent Security; and they rejoyce in the Increaſe of your Royal Houſe, as an Earneſt of Future Bleſſings to them.

We ſhould be unworthy of the Happineſs we enjoy under your Majeſty's auſpicious Government, did we not entertain the moſt grateful Senſe of it.

We therefore beg Leave with the utmoſt Duty and Gratitude to acknowledge the Wiſdom, Equity and Paternal Goodneſs of your Majeſty's Adminiſtration; and to aſſure your Majeſty, that we ſhall be always ambitious of recommending ourſelves to your Royal Approbation, by a due Regard to the Laws of our Country, and a moſt dutiful and affectionate Attachment to your Majeſty's Perſon and Government.

Petersbourg, May 27. Count Werthern, one of the King of Poland's Chamberlains, arrived here from Dreſden two Days ago, and Yeſterday had an Audience of the Czarina; in which he notified in Form the Marriage of the Princeſs Royal to the King of Naples and Sicily. By the laſt Advices from Felt Marſhal Munich this Court is informed, that he began his March the 13th Inſtant with the two laſt Diviſions of the Army.

Copenhagen, June 21, N. S. On the 17th Inſtant two Ships arrived here, one from Tranquebar, and the other from China, on Account of the Daniſh Eaſt India Company.

Whitehall, June 21.

This Evening, the Ceremony of publiſhing the Baptiſm of the young Prince, Son of their Royal Highneſſes the Prince and Princeſs of Wales, was performed, and the Office compleated, by the Right Reverend the Lord Biſhop of Oxford, Rector of St. James's Weſtminſter, in his Royal Highneſs's Apartment in Norfolk Houſe in St. James's Square. The Godfathers were the King of Sweden repreſented by the Lord Baltimore, and the Duke of Saxe-Gotha repreſented by the Marqueſs of Caernarvon; the Godmother was the Queen of Pruſſia repreſented by the Lady Charlotte Edwin. The Name of the young Prince pronounced on this Occaſion by the Lord Baltimore, was George William Frederick. His Royal Highneſs the Prince was preſent, as was her Royal Highneſs ſitting on a Bed of State, the Lords and Ladies of their Bed-chambers attending.
